will be submitted:—

1.—That the Company do borrow from the Land Investment and Agency Company Limited the sum of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars bearing interest at the rate of seven dollars per cent. per annum for such a period on such terms and conditions and to be secured in such a manner as the Company's Directors shall think fit, and that for every purpose the said Directors do cause all necessary deeds or documents to be duly executed.

2.—That at the end of Article No. 11 of the Company's existing Articles of Association there be added the following words, with the following marginal note, that is to say, Limit on holding No shareholder, whether an individual, Firm, Company or Corporation shall be entitled to hold at any one time more than one thousand shares.

3.—That Article No. 49 of the Company's existing Articles of Association with its marginal note be cancelled and that in lieu thereof, the following Article and marginal note be inserted, that is to say, Number of votes [49] Every shareholder (if duly registered for one month previous to the Meeting at which he claims to vote but not otherwise) shall have one vote for each share up to ten and one vote for every complete additional number of ten shares.

4.—That immediately after the Company's next Ordinary Half-yearly Meeting, Article No. 63 of the Company's existing Articles of Association be cancelled and that in lieu thereof the following be inserted:— No person shall be eligible to the Office of Director unless he be the holder of at least fifty shares.

thusiasm and in almost every instance an encore was demanded. The solos by Miss Johnson and Mr. Louisa evoked hearty approbation, and in both cases encores were given in response to the prolonged applause which followed the songs. Two of the items of Saturday evening's programme were repeated by special request—and were again loudly applauded. The company gave still more convincing proofs of their ability to render part songs, glees, &c., with conspicuous success, in the manner in which several numbers of this class were given.

A male quartette was a new feature in the programme which was received with marked approval. The singers gave another concert this evening; and we are glad to learn they purpose giving a few performances next week.

The Politische Correspondenz learns from the Holy See and Portugal to the Portuguese patronage in the East Indies has been settled to the satisfaction of both Portugal and England.

We hear, says the Strait Independent, that serious disturbances, if not an actual riot, have broken out at Cophah (Takapa) on the West Coast of Sumatra, and that U. S. M.'s gunboat, stationed at Tongkah proceeded to the scene of the disturbance for the purpose of restoring order. It is hardly a fortnight since we predicted that disturbances would take place in some of the Western Sumatran States, but we did not expect that they would come so soon.

Decidedly the affairs of these States ought to be looked after by somebody better able to supervise their government than the Siamese authorities.

THE SILVER QUESTION.—Here is an interesting contribution to the always interesting sterling exchange question. It comes from Senator John P. Jones, of Nevada, through a friend in London. Says Senator Jones:—"The present prospect underlies the fact that the silver market is large in the coinage of silver, or that some plan will be adopted by which silver bullion will be bought by the Treasury and paid for by certificates having the legal tender quality. The advocates of silver coinage are majority of the members of each House of Congress, and will insist on something by way of legislation that will more fully utilize that metal as money.

They may differ more or less widely as to the details of the plan to be adopted, but they are united in the belief that it will be done by law. It may be added that Senator Jones is the father of the Rime-tallic act, and a man of great weight with the present administration; with the President's own particular party especially.

Of course everyone knows that a permanent enhancement in the value of silver means a permanent improvement in sterling exchange, but we have never found any one who knows generally very much more. There are certain general indications, such, for instance, as the late excess of exports from India over imports, the demand of the English mint for metal, for new half-crowns, and the less obvious influence of a general feeling among those who traffic in Indian exchanges that America means to do something which will enable any one who observed it, which enabled us to forecast a rise extending over a few weeks, but that is about all. At the moment and unless, of course, America should move decisively, the only thing to be said besides, with any degree of safety, is that the present situation is not a very promising one, and that the effect of these considerations is likely to hold for a month or two and that a drop to the abnormal figure of last autumn is unlikely for several months. Let it always be remembered however that a rise in exchange is a rough index to it, that the effect of these considerations is likely to be disastrous to commerce generally, and that what at any rate the country at large wants is a stable rate rather than a merely high one. This only national legislation can secure.—Flower.

The office inside the Gaol in Singapore was entered, the strong box broken open and properly abstracted to the value of $500, consisting of money and other articles belonging to the prisoners. The theft is supposed to be the work of some former prisoners.

SEVERAL serious encounters between the Dutch troops and a party of Achinese, resulting in severe losses to the former, took place last week between Pagan Kro-ong Tjout and Kota Tounchou. It would appear that on Thursday last a party of convicts were sent out under guard to clear the jungle, when several of them fell to the fire of the Achinese lying in ambush in the neighbourhood.
The next day a detachment of Dutch troops ordered to the spot to dislodge the enemy had to retire in the afternoon with 9 of their men wounded without achieving their object.

On Saturday, Lieut. Müller went out in company of two companies, he was killed and his body brought back to town before he had been on hour in the field. Staff-captain van Fleet, a very valuable and popular officer, then went to take the command, but he too had to retire after being very seriously wounded, even his hat being shot off his head. The Achinese, who from the very first had been firing under cover, had meanwhile entrenched themselves by erecting earthworks.—Straits Independent, 13th Feb.

THE SERIOUS CHARGE AGAINST A POLICE SERGEANT.

Tao Chin, an acting sergeant in the Hongkong Police, was brought before Mr. Robinson in the Police Court yesterday, charged on remand with being unlawfully in possession of a ball of raw opium. Mr. Caldwell appeared for the defence. It was alleged that the defendant, on the 21st inst., went to an opium shop at Yaumati and tried to arrange for the sale of some raw opium, and that he afterwards brought a ball of raw opium there to sell, when he was arrested by one of the Opium Farmer's officers.

The master of the opium shop and one of his foks gave evidence as to the defendant's visits to the shop, and the defence officer stated that he arrested the defendant with the opium in his possession, just as he was leaving the shop.

Inspector Matheson, in charge of the Kowloon District, said the defendant was brought to the Yaumati Station on the afternoon of the 21st inst. about 5.50 by the excise officer, who charged him with being unlawfully in possession of the ball of opium produced. Witness cautioned the defendant in the usual way, and the defendant then made a statement to the effect that he left Taim-tai-tai Station at 4 p.m., and was on his way home to Kauling-tai, when he looked among some bushes for a stick he had placed there, and while doing so caught sight of a ball of opium, and which he was taking to Yaumati Station when he was arrested by the excise officer. Witness had heard that there was some friction between the police and the excise officers on account of the police preventing the carrying of opium from Kowloon, but he had no personal knowledge of the matter.

A woman who was called for the defence said she was gathering seaweed on the afternoon in question and saw the defendant take a stick and a ball of opium out from among some bushes. He submitted Mr. Caldwell said the case was one that ought to be looked at with special care, in view of the serious consequences which a conviction would bring to the defendant, who had been a member of the police force for about fourteen years. He submitted that the story for the defence was at least possible of belief, while that for the prosecution was to say the least a doubtful one, and the defendant was entitled to the benefit of the doubt. One important discrepancy in the evidence for the prosecution was that both witnesses stated that the defendant's first visit to the shop was made at a time when, as was proved beyond all doubt, he could not possibly have been there. His Worship could not give credence to this part of the story, and was entitled on that account to reject the whole of it.

His Worship, in reviewing the evidence, said it was quite clear that the shopmen were uncertain as to the precise time of the defendant's first visit to the shop, and he was inclined to think that they were mistaken on that point. There remained the fact however that these two people spoke positively as to the visit, and there could be no doubt that about five o'clock he was in the shop with the ball of opium. It was a case which he could not do to have sent to a jury, but he had no power to do so. He was required to give a decision on the evidence before him, and the decision was against the defendant. If the man was guilty, as he found him, he could see nothing in extenuation. He was in a position of trust and he had betrayed that trust.
If an excise officer were found guilty of such an offence he should impose on him the same punishment as he was about to inflict on this man; and that was the full penalty of $500, with the alternative of three months' imprisonment.

FRIST DAY, 26th February.

The race meeting of 1890 began under very favourable auspices to-day. The victor was mild, with a good Easterly breeze.
The number of spectators was larger than at any previous meeting. Considerable uncertainty prevailed as to some of the events, but the results did not differ much from what we indicated last night as probable.

There was a general impression that Mr. Sid would win the Derby, but much difference of opinion existed as to the successful pony. The race was not what would be called an exciting one, Enticer and Mat-erielist, who were both hot favourites, seemed at first to have it between them, but they had not a place at the finish, Enticer winning easily. The time was 2.17.2 seconds longer than last year.

The races were kept fairly well up to time, had owing to the great difficulty in starting the last race, it was run in the dark. The Hon. O. F. Chater acted as Judge, Mr.
W. H. Forbes as time-keeper, and Mr.
Gore-Booth as starter, while Messrs Hoppus and Grote presided over the weighing.

The times were fairly good, although not quite up to last year. The course was in capital order, but the "mugginess" of the weather was perhaps somewhat against fast riding. There were some very big fields, on one occasion as many as 21 ponies entering. But the races could not be called very exciting, most of them being won easily.

Among the new features of to-day's events was the Selling Plate, which was won by Mr. Sykes, with Nordfeldt. According to the conditions of the race, the pony was put for sale at the finish, and was bought back for $105.

The totalisator was in active operation, and despite the alleged tightness of the money seemed to be passing from hand to hand as freely as ever.

Mr. Sid had four wins, including the Derby, Mr. Sykes, two, and Mr. John Peel, Mr. Darms, Mr. Humphreys and Mr. Boxey, one each.
